

Duration: 1 day
Course Size: Minimum – 6 /Maximum – 20 (participants)
Language: This course can be presented in Thai (ภาษาไทย) and English
Price 5,000 Baht per person (Not including Vat 7%)

Course Overview

The purpose of this training is to introduce personnel to the principles of occupational health and safety, and to explore the fundamentals of policies, roles & responsibilities, HSE plans and procedures.

This course is important to all personnel as it defines the occupational health and safety legislation as it applies to Thailand will prove invaluable to personnel seeking clarity and content of a typical occupational health program

Instructor

This course is conducted by an HSE professional with more than 20 years in associated HSE and training positions within the upstream and downstream petrochemical industries. His broad-spectrum understanding of the industry ensures relevance at all times.

Course Syllabus: Theory

This course is primarily theoretical supported by workbook assessment. Where appropriate client procedures and forms can be included as part of this course.

On completion, participants will be able to demonstrate knowledge of policies relating to the following:

- Occupational Health & Safety Policies.
- Management's Role & Responsibilities
- Principles of an Occupational Health & Safety Plan.
- Understand the procedures as they apply to the following:

Personal Protective Equipment	Hazard Communication	Ergonomics
Hazardous Materials	Machine Lock out/Tag out	Hazardous Energy Control
Atmospheric Pollution	General Hygiene	Noise / Hearing Protection
Emergency Evacuation Plan	Fire Extinguisher Protection	Heat / Cold
Manual Handling	Confined Space Entry

- Identifying Occupational Health Risks.
- Alcohol Awareness
- Substance Abuse